

Color Psychology

The slide features a solid blue background. At the bottom, there are several overlapping, wavy, light blue lines that create a sense of movement and depth, resembling a stylized horizon or water waves.

Books

- * Can you remember children's books with colors?
- * "My Many Colored Days"
- * Could you describe your day in one color?
 - * What would it be?

Feelings

- * Certain colors often make us feel a certain way and sometimes depending how a color is displayed it can make us feel different than it normally does.
- * “Senses and Color” worksheet (10 min) or less

Description

- * Groups of 3-4 Students
 - * Each person in the group think about how their assigned color makes them feel
 - * Write down those feelings on the back of your assigned color
 - * Share

Analogy

- * On your own create your own personal analogy describing your assigned color
- * Example:
 - * The color brown is like a warm cup of cocoa on a cold winters eve, it warms the body and soul
- * Regroup and choose one to share with class

Top 10

- * In your group come up with a top 10 list of words to describe your assigned color

Picture It!

- * Find one picture that clearly uses your assigned color as part of the predominant design.

What is your favorite color?

- * Color Personality
- * Color Code
 - * By: Taylor Hartman, Ph. D.
 - * Find on-line
 - * Complete and turn in for extra credit